If "Bargain Hunting" Is Extravagance, Isn't It Strange That Bargain Hunters Can Always Afford It?

And haven't you noticed that, even if the family income is not at all great, the bargain hunting woman always seems to have the money with which to indulge her "extravagance"?

This fact should teach her critics something—perhaps teach them that the fixed habit of intelligent buying, based upon a persistent study of the ads in the Telegram, is a form of "extravagance" that should prevail in every home in the county!

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Northern District of West Virginia, ss: In the United States District Court in and for the County of Harrison, West Virginia.

In the matter of P. Prosen, Bankrupt. No. 1094, in Bankruptcy. Petition for Discharge.

To the Honorable Alston G. Dayton, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of West Virginia:

P. Prosen, of Clarksburg, in the County of Harrison, State of West Virginia, in said District, respectfully represents that on the eighth day of January, 1915, he was adjudged a bankrupt under the acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said acts and of orders of the court touching his bankruptcy.

Wherefore, he prays that he may be discharged by the Court; to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate under said bankruptcy acts, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

Dated this twelfth day of February A. D. 1915.

P. PROSEN, Bankrupt.

Order of Notice Thereon.

Northern District of West Virginia, ss: On the 20th day of February A. D. 1915, on reading the foregoing petition, it is Ordered by the Court that a hearing be held upon the same on the 5th day of April, A. D. 1915 before said Court at Clarksburg in said District, at ten o'clock in the forenoon; and that notice thereof be published in the Telegram a newspaper printed in said District, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the said time and place and show cause, if any they have why the prayer of the said petition should not be granted.

And it is further ordered by the Court that the clerk shall send by mail to all known creditors copies of said petition and this order addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

Witness the Honorable Alston G. Dayton, Judge of the said Court, and the seal thereof, at Clarksburg, in said District, on the 20th day of February A. D. 1915.

Attest: C. B. KEPAUDER, Clerk.

U. S. D. C. N. D. W. Va.

COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE.

Curtis W. Davis, Commissioner in Charge, J. W. Hall, Lulu Belle Hamilton, John E. Hamilton, Southern Pine Lumber Company, a corporation and Flavius S. Salsack.

The parties named above and each of them will take notice that on MONDAY, MARCH 22, 1915, at my office in the Goff Building, in the City of Clarksburg, Harrison County, West Virginia, I will proceed to execute the order of reference entered in the above styled cause by the Circuit Court of said County, dated the 13th day of January, 1915, wherein I am directed to take, state and report an account showing:

1. All the real estate owned by the defendant Lulu Belle Hamilton, whereof a full description and the quantity thereof.

AND HE DID

CONFIDENT! THE ICE-MAN HAS LEFT THE ICE ON THE BACK STEPS-NOW ILL HAVE TO CARRY IT IN MYSELF!

AND HE DID

state conveyed by plaintiff, Curtis W. Davis and his wife to J. W. Hall by deed bearing date the 7th day of January, 1913, and thereafter conveyed by J. W. Hall by deed bearing date the 14th day of August, 1913, which real estate is described in the bill filed in this cause, and which is hereby sold to the highest bidder for cash, to pay off and discharge said liens and the costs of this suit.

At which time and place you may each attend and produce such evidence as will enable me to perform the duties required by said order of reference. Given under my hand this 27th day of January, 1915.

TANEY HARRISON, Commissioner in Chancery.

NOTICE TO LULU BELLE HAMILTON.

To all persons holding liens by judgment or otherwise on the real estate or any part thereof, of Lulu Belle Hamilton.

In pursuance of a decree of the Circuit Court of Harrison County, West Virginia, made in a cause therein pending, to subject the real estate of said Lulu Belle Hamilton to the satisfaction of the liens thereon, you are hereby required to present all claims held by you against the said Lulu Belle Hamilton, which are liens on her real estate, or any part of it, for adjudication to me at my office in the Goff Building, in the City of Clarksburg, Harrison County, West Virginia, on or before the 1st day of March, 1915.

Given under my hand this 27th day of January, 1915.

TANEY HARRISON, Commissioner in Chancery.

SPECIAL COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

Notice is given that, in pursuance of two decrees of the Circuit Court of Harrison County, West Virginia, duly made by said court on October 17, 1914, and January 10, 1915, in the chancery cause therein pending, in which Frank Z. Pride is the plaintiff, and Mary Omitz and others are the defendants, and duly entered of record in the office of the Clerk of said court in Chancery Order Book No. 36, page 254, and No. 36, page 416, the undersigned special commissioners, who were appointed by said decrees to make sale of the real estate herein mentioned, will at the hour of 10 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the front door of the court house of the County of Harrison, in the State of West Virginia, sell at public auction to the highest bidder the lot or parcel of land lying and being in the County of Harrison, in the State of West Virginia, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on proposed High Street in said Town and corner to lot of Oscar C. Witt, and running thence with said lot N 8 degrees E 85 feet to a stake; thence S 84° E 60 feet to a stake; thence S 6 degrees W 35 feet to said proposed High Street; thence with the same 60 feet to the place of beginning, containing fifty-one hundred and thirty square feet, more or less, the D. G. Powell's Addition to the Town of Salem, and being the same lot that was conveyed to said Oscar C. Witt by deed bearing date March 27, 1914, and of record in the office of the Clerk of the County Court, of said Harrison County, in Deed Book No. 180, page 79, and being a part of the real estate which the said William G. Omitz died seized.

TERMS OF SALE: One-third of the purchase money, or as much more as the purchaser may elect, to be paid on the day of sale; the residue in two equal installments, due respectively in one and two years after the date of sale, each bearing interest at six per cent from date, for which the purchaser shall give acceptable notes, and the payment of which a vendor's lien shall be reserved in a deed of conveyance to the purchaser.

CHARLES E. JOHNSON, WILLIAM H. TAYLOR, Special Commissioners.

I, J. Wade Coffman, Clerk of said Circuit Court of Harrison County, do certify that Charles E. Johnson and William H. Taylor, Special Commissioners, have given bond as required by the above mentioned decree of sale.

Given under my hand at 25th day of February, 1915.

J. WADE COFFMAN, Clerk, Circuit Court, Harrison County, West Virginia.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PARDON.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will make application to the Governor of West Virginia on Monday, March 22nd, 1915, or as soon thereafter as said application can be heard, for a pardon of the crime of felonious shooting of which he was convicted at the November term of the criminal court of Harrison County, West Virginia, and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of two years.

(Signed) ALBIE MEG.

NOTICE OF JUDICIAL SALE.

Pursuant to a decree of the Circuit Court of Harrison County, West Virginia, made and entered on the 13th day of January, 1915, in the chancery cause therein pending of Homer P. Squires and others, against Matilda E. Queen, I will on
